German jubilation over the "r-call" of Admiral Kautz is short liv d. The facts of the matter are that Washington authorities cou si lered Kautz fulfilled his duties as bass of the Samoan ranch with nea ness and disputch. If, how ever, it is conductive to peace and g od will that p pular German opinion should believe Kautzwa "recalled," why let it cont that.

EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association commenced yesterday morning. and they are today in conclave and expect to finish their labors tonight. Mr. Hibiho, called the meeting to order, by virtue of hiposition as recording secretary. Rev. E. S. Timeten was elected moderator, and Rev. J. M. Ezera, of Pearl City, was installed as re cording secretary.

Reports of the committees from the associations of the diff rent islands were received and form the subject of discussion this attergoon.
